FOREWORD

THE HISTORICAL COMMITTEE OF ZION UNITED METHODIST CHURCH has spent a large part of 1990 gathering bits of information of Zion's history, and calling for pictures from members which might reveal priceless moments in the church's past. Many of you have shared memories and have offered valuable help in so many ways. We say "Thanks!" to you, for Zion's history is your history. It is "our" story of the gracious workings of God in Christ in and through the lives of those in our church and in our faith community. We are much indebted to Tom Daniels who had prepared the cemetery list and then offered it over to us for this publication. We especially thank Tammy Parker for typing much of the work in order to keep the print consistent.

We are particularly indebted to the people in the Archives of Perkins Library, Duke University and to the Archivist and Library of Wofford College, Spartanburg, South Carolina. Wofford College Library houses the historical records of the South Carolina Conference.

Of our committee, Melissa Clontz Kindley helped us keep historical facts in order. Mrs. Kindley brought to life for us many aspects of Zion's history which would have gone silent into the years otherwise. We are forever grateful to her. Flonnie Purser gathered pictures we could not have imagined existed. Flonnie's ideas, questions, and "finds" did much to make our book happen at all. Virginia Braswell has spent literally hours, sometimes with the pastor, but most often on her own, capturing item by item Zion's history from charge, district, and conference records. She also spent hours putting the book together. Nancy Spaine who works in the Archives office of the Western North Carolina Conference, helped us immeasurably. Most of all Nancy entered with us the enjoyment of making the search.

As a committee we have worked simply to put on paper what we now had of Zion's history and what we were able to discover additionally in the time we had. What we hope we have done is to start a process of discovery which will continue with the years. We are sure new items of interest about our history will be discovered in the future. We hope the publication will offer much enjoyment and foster endless discussion.

FROM THE PASTOR

The rain and fog of this mid-August morning hint already at the coming of September. August is advancing. Zion's revival and sesquicentennial homecoming are upon us.

Finally, the rains have come, and everything is green and full-blooming in this corner of Union County. The countryside speaks of people who take care of the land. People of our church have always cared about the earth and the creatures of the earth. They have shared caring about one another. Today ones among us model a life-style of care of the earth and of one another in life on the earth. Life-style and relationship reveal so much of how Zion people have shared a life of faith through the years.

Zion people work and walk quietly with the land and with those around them. They grow grain, raise chickens and hogs to provide food. They plant trees and grow flowers for beauty and breath of life. Alongside it all are those who commute for work in the business and industry which surrounds us. Weekly we gather, individuals and families, for worship and Bible Study. We come singing, praying, preaching, listening for a word from God. Weekly, too, as from our beginnings, the faith of Zion people goes far beyond our own community and into the church in the world.

Zion's sequicentennial year has marked our first year together, Zion's and mine. In it we have weathered a hurricane that sent us to worship in the basement of Baucom Hall. We found we could pray and sing and preach and listen for God, baptize and even have a large group of guests in that space. Thanksgiving in time and heart brought us back to a refurbished sanctuary. We have shared grief as ones we loved have died. We have shared over births and baptisms, new ones of faith among us and the start of a new children's choir.

Times have changed. Many of our ways have changed. Still we practice our faith in much the same way as those before us. In it we continue to hope as Christ through us makes a difference in the world. As sure as Crooked Creek still winds through our land, God still speaks through the lives and faith of the people of Zion.

Rev. Linda Stack Morgan

ZION UNITED METHODIST CHURCH HISTORY

Zion United Methodist Church is located in the upper western corner of Union County, North Carolina. The site is slightly north of Unionville, approximately two miles south of Highway 218 and four miles east of Highway 601. The date accepted for the founding of Zion Methodist Episcopal Church is 1840. The date appears on the cornerstone of the present sanctuary, erected in 1940, and of Baucom Hall, built in 1958.

Deeds to the church were recorded in Union County Register of Deeds, August 7, 1919. They indicate a transfer of property on May 25, 1874 from J. M. Hagler and Henry T. Long. The parcel from Mr. Long was bought at a sum of $13.00. A cemetery already existed on the land. Slaves had been buried there. Their graves are both unmarked and marked with stones without inscriptions. Huge trees which once stood in the cemetery have since been felled by storm and ax. John W. and Matilda Rushing Love were the founders of Zion Methodist Episcopal Church. Their great-grandson and family, H. Dwight and Nancy T. Brooks, are members of Zion United Methodist Church today.

In 1990, Zion celebrates its one hundred fiftieth year of Christian service. The presiding Bishop is L. Bevel Jones, III. The Church is in the Albemarle District of the Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church. The Rev. Lloyd G. Hunsucker is the District Superintendent. The Rev. Linda Stack Morgan is Pastor.

Having begun in 1840, Zion would early have been called Zion Methodist Episcopal Church. Its geographical division at that time was Mecklenburg County of North Carolina. The Church was then on the Lincolnton District, Sugar Creek Circuit of the South Carolina Conference. Union County was formed in 1842, two years after the church was organized.

Methodism had arisen in England and out of the faith experience and work of John Wesley, a clergyman in the Church of England. Methodists were preaching in America as early as 1766. It was at the Christmas Conference in Baltimore, Maryland, on December 24, 1784, that the Methodist Episcopal Church in America had been organized. Thus, when Zion Methodist Episcopal Church was formed in Mecklenburg County, Methodism in America was only about fifty years old.

In General Conference, June, 1844, four years after Zion began, the Methodist Episcopal Church made the decision to become the Methodist Episcopal Church and the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. The South Carolina Conference formally accepted the decision in July of that same year. The first General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South met May 1, 1845 in Louisville, Kentucky. Zion Methodist Episcopal Church by decision of its Conference in 1844 then became Zion Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Two years later, in 1846, Zion's partner church was organized as Mill Grove Methodist Episcopal Church, South. The two churches have been on the same charge in the connection almost without interruption since that time.

The Lincolnton District in North Carolina is listed in the South Carolina Conference minutes from 1828. (Clark, Elmer T. Methodism in Western North Carolina. Lake Junaluska: Historical Society of the Western North Carolina Conference, the Methodist Church, 1966, p. 34.) Zion began as a part of that district and remained so until 1853, when the Charlotte District "took over the circuits in lower Mecklenburg and in Union and Anson Counties and beyond". Then Zion was a part of the Charlotte Circuit. In 1867 the center of the district moved to Wadesboro, North Carolina. The circuit became known as the South Charlotte Circuit. The move became a preparation for bringing these North Carolina churches into the North Carolina Conference, which occurred in 1870. Specific churches on circuits were not listed in Conference minutes until 1870. One early mention of Zion occurs in the quarterly conference minutes of the Sugar Creek Circuit in 1842. An adjourned conference for 1841 was held in January of 1842. Zion is listed as having given $1.18 3/4, their part in the Steward's report. There is an early mention of Zion in the South Carolina Conference minutes through the Conference Mission Society report of 1854. Zion in the Charlotte District gave $1.20 to missions that year. Zion became a part of the Western North Carolina Conference when it was formed in 1890.

The mid-1800's was a peak time of camp meetings, and Zion was a site of camp meetings. In the early days, Zion grounds consisted of an arbor, a church building, and campground facilities. "Families brought tents and set them up on sites for the camp meetings", recalls Melissa Clontz Kindley (Mrs. Roy Kindley) from her mother, Mary Etta Long Clontz. Mary Etta Long Clontz had related to her children her memory of having camped as a child with her family during the camp meeting at Zion. Born in 1874, she might well have been in attendance of the camp meeting at Zion when Mr. Brantley York came in August, 1879.

Brantley York records in his autobiography:

I received a letter from a gentleman in Union County, requesting me to teach a Grammar Class at a church called Mill Grove, to commence a little after the middle of July... On Saturday before the beginning of the class, I delivered a public lecture and also preached on Sunday, and commenced teaching on Monday, a large class having formed. I continued teaching for two months, preaching on Sunday at different churches, attended a camp meeting at Zion, and also at Bethel in Cabarrus County, and also at Union Grove Methodist Protestant Church, preaching each day of the meeting while there.

Brantley York was a Methodist circuit rider preacher, educator, and author. At the time cited above, he had been serving as Professor of English, elocution, rhetoric, and logic of Rutherford College. Around the time of Zion's founding, Brantley York was in Randolph County where he established the Union Institute. Union Institute eventually became Trinity College. The College moved to Durham and became Duke University. On the second floor of the Divinity School of Duke University is a small, English Gothic chapel named York Chapel in honor of Brantley York. Union Institute in Randolph County became the inspiration for the establishment of Union Institute in Unionville, Union County, North Carolina before the turn of the century. Brantley York's report of having attended a camp meeting at Zion during his month of teaching may be considered a good indication that the fourth week in August had already become Homecoming and Revival time at Zion, at least as early as 1879.

By the turn of the century, camp meetings at Zion had ceased. Mrs. Kindley, who was born in 1904, has no memory of one. According to Clark, "Education evangelism through the Sunday Schools became the prevalent evangelism method". (Ibid., p. 32)

The site of Zion Methodist Church was a thick forest in the early days, mostly cedar grove. The church building was not visible from the road. Even today, the trees hide the facade of the sanctuary as you approach by the drive. The original building stood in the midst of the cemetery as it now is. In 1916, when Melissa Clontz Kindley was about twelve years old, the old building was moved to a site on the western edge of the cemetery. Mr. Paul Alexander Purser used a horse-drawn skid to move the building. A magnolia tree now marks the place to which the building was moved at that time. The tree was planted by the late Nancy Serena "Rena" Love (Mrs. N.C.) Price, granddaughter of John W. and Matilda R. Love.

The original building was replaced by the present building in 1940. Its site is slightly west again of the old site. Lumber was cut on the grounds and traded at the lumber yard for dry lumber to build the new sanctuary. The old building reportedly stood one hundred years for Zion. It was then sold to a black congregation. They moved it to their site near Rock Rest, North Carolina, south of Monroe. The building has since been replaced there by two brick structures. An educational building was added to Zion Methodist Church in 1958. It is the Baucom Memorial Hall, named in memory of the late, beloved Mr. Henry Baucom. In 1990, the United Methodist Women of the church have had the second story floors of Baucom Hall completely refinished. They also installed new carpet in the large nursery and toddler room.

Families came to church in horse and buggy before the advent of cars. It is said horses whinnied and neighed if services lasted much past noon. A bell tower, which stands at the edge of the cemetery and behind the old building site, was erected November, 1924 in memory of Rena Price's father, Mr. W. A. Love, son of John and Matilda Love and one of the founders of the Union Institute of Unionville. Mr. George Stegall served for years as Zion's bell ringer. Union Institute belonged to the Western North Carolina Conference from 1900 to 1904. Into the twentieth century, Zion was on the Unionville Charge. The parsonage was located in Unionville. In fact, two different parsonages in Unionville served the charge. Union Institute had become a part of the North Carolina Public School System early in the century. The Unionville Church had merged with Zion United Methodist Church in 1973. On December 9, 1979, a new parsonage was dedicated on a new site at Mill Grove.

Zion's charge history has been one of consistent change. The Rev. E. W. Mills brought continuity to the charge, however, in serving from 1938 to 1950, longer than any other pastor. In 1965, he returned for one other year. The church had been on a charge with as many as eleven churches. By the time Rev. Mills came, there were six churches on the charge. Zion became a part of the Albemarle District when it was formed in 1960. In June, 1982, Zion and Mill Grove became a two-point charge, enabling the minister to hold services in both churches each Sunday. In 1990, Zion and Mill Grove made an historic decision to maintain the same worship hour a year at a time.

The Rev. A. L. Kesler served the church from 1969 to 1972. Using lay speakers from the congregations on the charge, Rev. Kesler began worship every Sunday for each church. Prior to that, Zion had had worship twice per month; at 2:00 p.m. each second Sunday afternoon, and at 11:00 a.m. each fourth Sunday. Original lay speakers were R. A. Kindley from Zion; Fred Ross and Joe Locklear from Mill Grove; Jesse Rushing, Nicholas Rochester, and Dueane Ormond from Union Grove. R. A. Kindley continues to be a Lay Speaker and currently serves as Lay Leader and Chairperson of the Administrative Council at Zion. Fred Ross also continues to serve as a Lay Speaker and as current Lay Leader and Chairperson of the Administrative Council at Mill Grove. Joe Locklear is deceased. His family are still members of Mill Grove. Jesse Rushing is Pastor of Shiloh Charge in Catawba County. Nicholas Rochester is Pastor of the Bond's Grove-Marvin Charge in the Albemarle District. Dueane Ormond remains a leader in Union Grove United Methodist Church.

There are two clergy in the Western North Carolina Conference who came out of Zion United Methodist Church. Mark Clontz is Pastor of Fairgrove and Mispah United Methodist Churches in the Greensboro District. Jeff Rushing is Pastor of the Fountain Hill-Mt. Moriah Charge in the Albemarle District. Both are ministerial students. Jeff Rushing was ordained as a deacon at the 1990 Western North Carolina Annual Conference.

In 1939, the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, the Methodist Episcopal Church, and the Methodist Protestant Church had reunited to form the Methodist Church. In 1968, the Methodist Church and the Evangelical United Brethren Church (German speaking Methodists in America) united to form the United Methodist Church.

Zion had shared a history of name changes: Zion Methodist Episcopal Church, 1840; Zion Methodist Episcopal Church, South, 1844; Zion Methodist Church, 1939; and Zion United Methodist Church, since 1968.

The merger of the Unionville United Methodist Church with Zion United Methodist Church in 1973 made a three-point charge. Since 1982, Zion has continued to share life in the United Methodist connection with its only partner of more than 144 years, Mill Grove United Methodist Church. Zion today is a unique and growing church in its own right. Its long and rich history has shaped the church with strong gifts of ministering for the 21st century. A people with a history of faith of one hundred and fifty years know a lot about being church together. Today Zion claims with joy its spiritual gleanings from the past, its sensitive and faithful continuing ministry in the present, and its good and growing hope for the future.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

The United Methodist Women, since their organization sometime in the 1940's have taken a very active part in the church.

When our educational building was put into service in 1959, Zion was the first church in this area to have kitchen facilities. Our ladies immediately began enjoying the fellowship of working together to prepare food and refreshments for the people of the church and the community.

Our women have organized and published 3 cookbooks. They each contain favorite recipes gathered from the community. The proceeds from the sales have gone to projects for the church, the first one going to the floor covering in the fellowship hall.

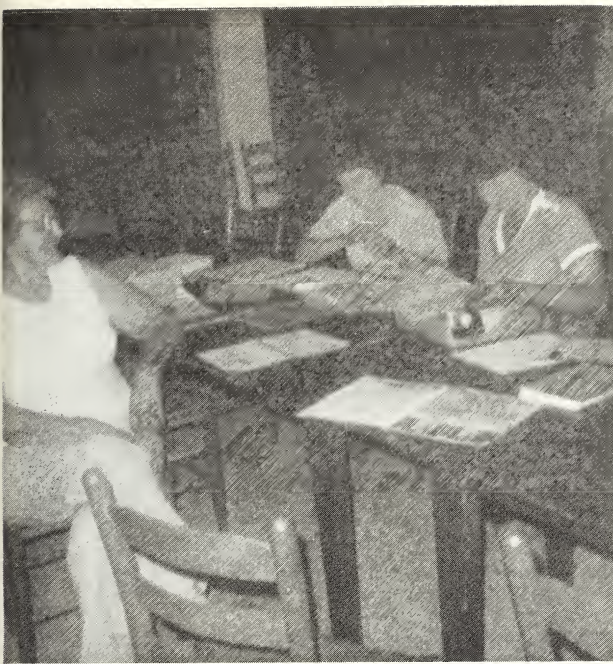

Most of our members and others in our congregation have been remembered by honorary gifts to missions through our conference.

The Chrismons on the Chrismon tree pictured on the front cover of this book were made by our United Methodist Women.

Enjoying food and fellowship after preparing the first meal in our fellowship hall in 1959 are Flonnie Purser, Lena Love, Maxine Greene and Melissa Kindley Maxine Greene, Virginia Braswell and Elsie Kindley working on our second cookbook.

Maxine Greene, Flonnie Purser and Mr. & Mrs. James G. Allred, Sr. are displaying the quilt that was made by members of the congregation and quilted by members of the UMW.

The quilt was a gift to the Allred's in 1982 when they left the church.

We began our Mother Daughter Banquet in 1988. The first two years this affair was buffet. Getting ready to enjoy the food are Scarlet Helms, Mandy Parker, Tammy Parker, Helen Green, Dru Clontz, Donna Thomas and Dean Baucom.

UNITED METHODIST MEN

The men and women of Zion have worked together in most every project through all the projects of the 150 years. They evidently just do not make as many pictures.

Enjoying the first meat prepared in the fellowship hall in 1959 are Roy Kindley, Bengie Braswell, J. D. Kizer, and D. K. Love Zion's men had a very active softball team for several years, winning a total of 12 trophies that are on display in the fellowship hall.

Pictured here are the 1972 Champions of the Church Softball League.

Before our fellowship hall that was first used in 1959, a table stood to the right of the church that was also often spread with good food at our Homecomings and family reunions.

We can only imagine the picture below was probably at a children's day program practice in the 1940's. On the front row, left to right are George Mullis, Jerry Hinson, Wayne Mullis, Bobby Clontz, Hubert Mullis. The only one on the back row we are able to identify is R. A. SEPTEMBER, 1989 - !! HUGO !!

There were times during the storm that we probably felt that even the sky was falling; the ceiling of our church did for sure. All of the ceiling was replaced and new light fixtures were installed in the sanctuary.

In 1989 the church bought new Hymnals to be used in the sanctuary. Pictured above is R. A. Kindley stacking the old ones that were taken by him and Elsie Kindley, Paul and Linda Morgan to needy churches in South Carolina.

REV. ENOCH WEBSTER MILLS

Served as pastor 1938 to 1950 and returned in 1965. He came to the Western N. C. Conference from the Methodist Protestant Church.

He served as pastor during the building of our present sanctuary in 1940 which is pictured below with Baucom Memorial Hall which was built in 1958.

REV. CHARLES W. RANDOLPH

Served as pastor 1950 to 1952.
He was a student at Duke Divinity at the time and stayed at the (unfinished) parsonage at Unionville on weekends.

Rev. Randolph was very interested in youth work and for several years following his ministry, Zion had a very strong youth group.

REV. J. R. SHORT

Served as pastor in 1953

Rev. Short was a retired minister when he was appointed to our charge.
Due to an auto accident and ill health, he was able to stay only one year.

REV. WILLIAM ROBERT ORMOND

Served as pastor from 1954 to June 1958.

Construction on our education building was begun during the last year of his ministry.

REV. CALEB JAY WINSLOW

Served as our pastor June, 1959 to June, 1965.

In 1960 our county became part of the newly organized Albemarle District.

Rev. Winslow loved to fish, and he was truly one of God's "Fishers of men".

REV. H. O. HUSS

Served as our pastor June, 1966 to June, 1968

Mr. Huss retired after leaving the Unionville Charge.

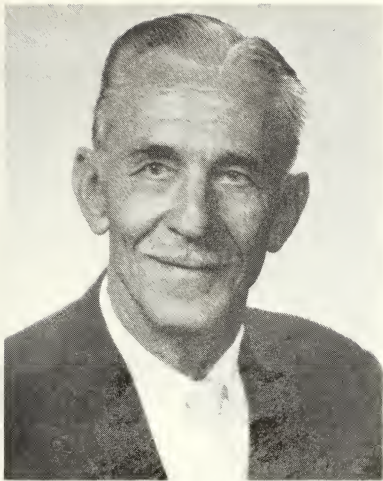

We also remember Mrs. Huss and her help with the music.

REV. EDGAR F. KALE

Served as our pastor June, 1968 to June, 1970.

REV. A. L. KESLER

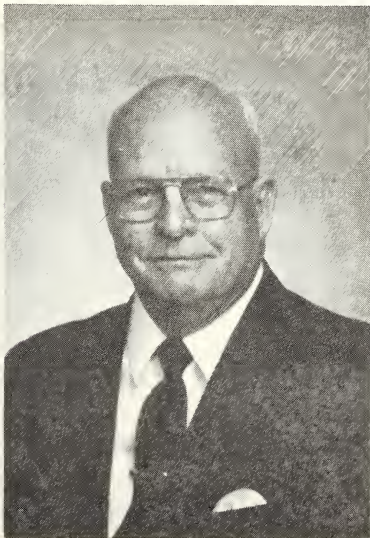

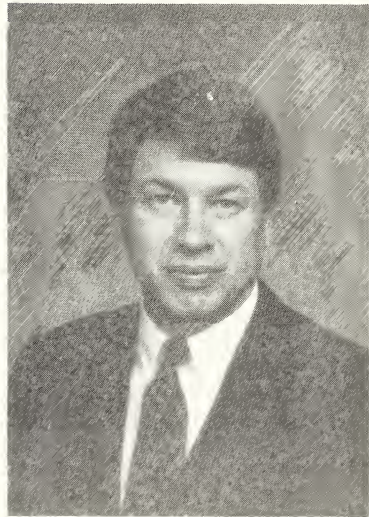

Served our church June, 1970 to June, 1972

Rev. Kesler loved gospel music. We had a gospel singing every fifth Saturday or Sunday night. Remember how full our church was at these events?

REV. HARRISON HINSON

Served our church June, 1975 to June, 1976

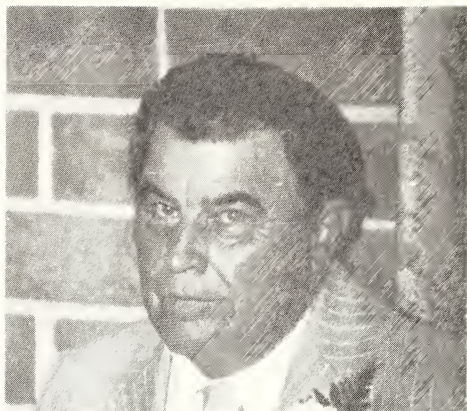

"It was a real challenge for this new young minister to figure out how to minister effectively to three small churches. My new bride and I had many good experiences over the two years we were with you."

REV. GEORGE M. CARVER

Served as pastor June, 1977 to June, 1978

"I deeply appreciate the love and cooperation of Zion Church while I was there."

REV. JAMES G. ALLRED, SR.

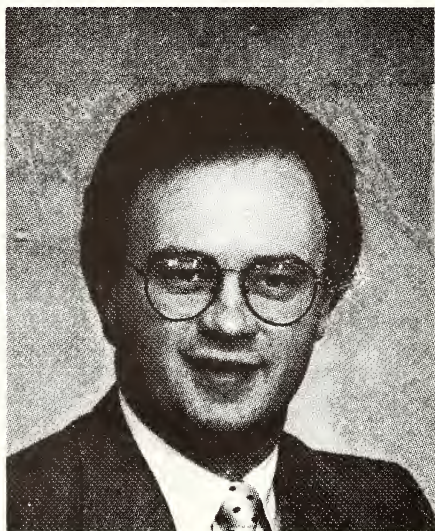

Served as pastor June, 1978 to June, 1982

"Be faithful to Christ and the Church. " Matthew 25:21

REV. WILLIAM L. BARBEE

Served as pastor June, 1982 to June, 1985

"We are very important to our Heavenly Father. He knows who we are and where we are."

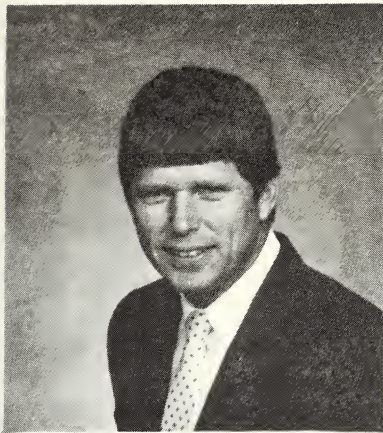

REV. DONALD W. EVERHART

Served as pastor June, 1985 to June, 1986

"My prayer is that we arise and show God's kingdom in our homes, our communities, our nation, and our world."

REV. MARK CLONTZ

Mark is a member of our own church that went into the full time ministry.

"There's not enough space to write all my memories and experiences at Zion Church. Thank you for not giving up on me.

Never give up on anyone."

REV. NICK ROCHESTER

Nick was one of the lay-speakers that served our church from 1973 - 1976, and from there went into full time ministry.

"My life was blessed by the folks at Zion and I thank God for my memory of you all.

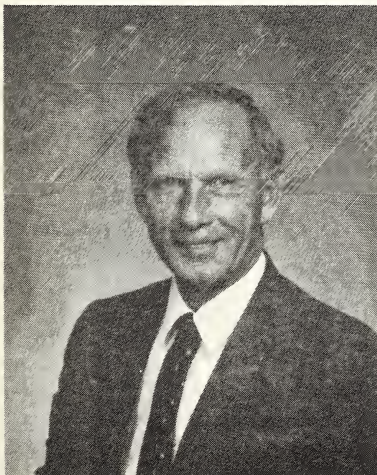

Do not be ashamed to testify about our Lord." 2 Timothy 1:8

REV. JESSE RUSHING

Jesse was also a lay-speaker starting in 1983 that likewise answered the call into the ministry.

"I will never forget the wonderful experiences I had while lay speaker. Zion has a special place in our hearts!"

Pictured above is the membership and congregation of Zion Church at the June 18, 1989 worship service. The picture was taken from the front of the church. Pictured below the same congregation gathered for fellowship. This was taken June 11, 1989 at a cook-out honoring Don and Francia Everhart before their departure for Australia.
